The Practice/Activity:

During the lockdown period, although the students were not in direct contact with the college, all the students were in touch with the college through online, and they were being guided to read the books available to maintain a good mental state. During the lockdown, the students were contacted about how they enjoyed reading what they read and how much they enjoyed their time at home due to their reading habit. Some of the same students were taken book talk on the book they had read on the subject of My Reading during the lockdown. Through the discussion of students, Analytical study of three types of books was selected, such as religious books, historical books and cultural novels were presented by Ku. Nikita Gaikwad, ku.Padmina Raut and Ku.Vaishnavi Korde through the Zoom meeting, which received a very good response from the students. Principal Dr.Subhash Gawhane appreciated the students of Book Talk for reviewing the book.
