The Practice/Activity:

After the corona epidemic, we can see a huge increase in cybercrime. Meanwhile, it came to light that the Facebook account of two professors of the college was hacked and money was demanded on their behalf. The main organizer of the program, Prafull Gawai, was contacted by the cyber crime cell of Amravati as a prosecutor, and the dire reality of the matter came before him. As a member of the Management Council of Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University, Mr. Ravindra Sahare of Cybercrime presented the situation in the department before him and expressed the responsibility of the society to prevent such crimes from happening. . In this workshop, Police Sub-Inspector Shri Ravindra Sahare explained how cyber crimes happen and what care should be taken to prevent them from happening. Freedom of speech and thought given to us by the constitution and its limits while exercising and it informs what care should be taken while expressing on social media. He gave guidance on what precautions should be taken to avoid financial crimes and frauds. The Registrar of the University Mr. Tushar Deshmukh inaugurated the workshop by guiding the students on how their department will stay behind in cyber crimes by creating coordination between the University College and the Police Force. Dr. Subhash Gawhane, principal of the college, expressed the importance of alertness and vigilance in his presidential address using the words of Shri Ravindra Sahare Saheb to prevent cyber crimes from happening. The National Digital Library of India broadcasted the program not only at the university level but also across the country, thus we can see that the university level workshop was also noticed at the national level.
